Palm Beach Gardens, FL (PRWEB) April 22, 2014

Revolution Dating, a highly regarded Florida matchmaking service, today announced its upcoming Love-Fest 2014, taking place on April 30. This first annual celebration of love, friendship and romance is poised to become a South Florida favorite, attracting an impressive array of eligible men and women ranging in age from young professionals to senior singles. While most of Revolution Datings exclusive events are available to members only, Love-Fest 2014 is open to non-members, but by invitation only. Interested singles should contact Revolution Dating immediately to secure one of the limited spots available.

Guests will literally enjoy a red carpet experience from the moment they arrive at Love-Fest 2014. Revolution Dating President and Founder Kelly Leary will deliver welcoming remarks, and members of the companys matchmaking team will make personal introductions throughout the evening and highlight some of their favorite couples and most memorable dating success stories.

The casual yet sophisticated event with a combined indoor and outdoor setting will feature signature cocktails from local Tease Me Spirits, complimentary appetizers, and a live DJ. A professional photographer will be on-hand to capture the evenings moments. Great giveaways will also be awarded to guests, including a paddle boarding excursion with BlueLine Surf & Paddle Co. and free sessions from yoga and Pilates studios.

Revolution Dating is very excited to host our first annual Love-Fest, which will deliver romance and companionship to South Florida singles from Vero Beach to Broward County, said Revolution Dating President and Founder Kelly Leary. This elite event will showcase our success stories and introduce non-members to the enhanced levels of personal attention, support and relationship guidance that Revolution Dating provides to all of our clients.

Building on Kellys 23 years of success in the dating industry, Revolution Dating goes far beyond merely suggesting available singles or setting up dates. Following rigorous pre-screen qualifications, each Revolution Dating client receives a professional photo shoot, writing assistance with his or her personal profile, and one-on-one image consulting and coaching. The company also offers unique services such as personal shopping and mock-dating with professional feedback.

To secure your spot for the exclusive, invitation only Love-Fest 2014, contact Revolution Dating at 561-630-XOXO (9696).
